San Francisco legend tells of a French restaurant in the gold rush days of the city named Le Poulet d'Or. Though beloved by the patrons come down from the gold fields, many had a hard time pronouncing the unfamiliar language of the restaurant's name. Some began to simply call it Old Poodle Dog, and soon that's what it became. Our wine is an homage to that spirit of our favorite city that learns from the traditions of others and creates something new and delicious from it.

The 2012 Old Poodle Dog Cabernet Sauvignon is sourced from excellent Cabernet Sauvignon vineyards in Coombsville, Yountville, and Diamond Mountain. The wine offers complexity and elegance wrapped around a core of blackberry and plum fruit flavors. Supple tannins offer a fine-grained texture with a lingering fruit and mocha-filled finish.
