

San Francisco legend tells of a French restaurant in the gold rush days of the city named Au Poulet d'Or. Though beloved by the patrons come down from the gold fields, many had a hard time pronouncing the unfamiliar language of the restaurant's name. Some began to simply call it Old Poodle Dog, and soon that's what it became. Our wine is an homage to that spirit of our favorite city that learns from the traditions of others and creates something new and delicious from it.

The 2014 Old Poodle Dog Cabernet Sauvignon is sourced from excellent Cabernet Sauvignon vineyards in Coombsville, Yountville, and South Napa. The wine displays attractive dark fruits, sweet spice, and a mocha note. Medium bodied, the wines bright flavors lay elegantly on the palate, supported by silky tannins.
